MANUEL ANTONIO VARONA

DECLASSIFIED BY SP8-Mac/mde
ON 7-11-94 (JFK)

On July 12, 1961, MM T-1, who has been involved in Cuban revolutionary activities for the past three years and who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he was formerly a member of the Cuban Bureau for the Repression of Communist Activities (BRAC), which organization investigated communist activities in Cuba. (u)

MM T-1 explained that BRAC, in addition to its own files and records, had access to all the records of the Bureau of Investigation, which was a police investigative agency in Cuba prior to January 1, 1959. (u)

MM T-1 explained that the records of BRAC and the Bureau of Investigation never reflected MANUEL ANTONIO VARONA as a communist or involved in any such activities. MM T-1 explained that VARONA is the former Prime Minister of Cuba, and is presently one of the leading figures in the Cuban anti-FIDEL CASTRO movement in the United States. (u)

MM T-1 advised that he has personally known VARONA for a number of years, and recalled that VARONA, in 1927, was a member of the Directorio Estudiantil, a student organization at Havana University. The purpose of this organization was for representation before the faculty of the University and the Cuban Government. (u)

In 1930, another student organization was formed, Directorio Estudiantil Universitario. A number of the members of the first organization, Directorio Estudiantil, joined this second organization, and these members were the sons and nephews of many of the Cuban politicians of the MACHADO regime, and this organization was against the MACHADO regime.
